Graceful Calm, Peaceful Presence

A Time for Retreat and Prayer

October 14-16, 2011

Barbara C. Harris Center, Greenfield, N.H.

Grace is the courage to be at home in the moving resonance of the present.

—Sam Keen, To a Dancing God

What a lovely understanding of grace: the courage to be at home in the midst of all of life's fullness and chaos and joy! There are many times when the stress of our days threatens to overwhelm us, other times when we wonder where the days have gone... and other times when we are simply grateful to have made it through another day! And yet, by God's great grace, we find the courage and are blessed with the peace to find balance and grounding through it all. This retreat is a time to restore our souls, to regain our courage, to rest in God's grace. It is a gentle gift of spaciousness, in quiet and in conversation, in the beautiful, wooded retreat setting of the Barbara Harris Center.

Our time of retreat will begin with supper on Friday, October 14 and continue through lunch on Sunday, October 16.

Retreat leaders will be Susie Allen, associate pastor at UCC Boxborough, musician and spiritual director; and Nancy Elder-Wilfrid, transitional pastor United Congregational Church (Worcester), director of the Kairos Center and spiritual director.

Cost for the retreat will be $300 (includes $253 for private room and board, and $47 program).

Registration deadline is October 3, at which time the nonrefundable tuition of $300 is due.

For more information, please contact the Kairos Center at
